The cards, good wishes, and gifts are all very much appreciated. The whole day was perfect, and the memories will live with us, wherever we may be, forever.

We close by saying that your decision to memorialize the garden in our names is the most outstanding gift that we have ever been given. We feel it to be an honor above and beyond what we deserve, but one that we cherish, and think of fondly and constantly.

You took in a couple who had no experience of what would happen when one of them became the minister of a church. You welcomed us, taught us, encouraged us, and somehow managed to make the whole enterprise work. We thank you for your love, your understanding, your patience, and above all, your friendship.

We wish you every happiness and blessing, and trust that God will continue to look down upon you, and be kind to you, and give you peace.

With Christian love and affection,
Rev. Joe and Laura Callahan

Introducing The Rev. Michael J. Ader

Michael J. Ader, our new Pastor, is a United Church of Christ minister who most recently served as the Interim Pastor of the First Congregational Church of Woodstock. During his career as Professional Interim Specialist he served UCC congregations in Ledyard, West Hartford (Flagg Rd.), Willington, Taftville, Talcottville, Plainfield and Central Village. Mike is certified by the national Interim Ministry Network.

He served as a pastor in Vermont and Rhode Island before coming to Connecticut where he was a Chaplain and Pastoral Counselor at Hartford Hospital. It was through these ministries, counseling seniors and families, that he understood the depth of stress-related problems due to aging and illness. Realizing something more was needed, he founded Elderlink, Inc. and created health claim and daily money management programs for people who could no longer manage these tasks for themselves. Through his interdenominational leadership, statewide interfaith networks on aging to promote independent living were created.

Mike has authored two books. The first, Pathways to Eldercare, was a directory of consumer resources and products for seniors and their families in Connecticut, New York and New Jersey. His second book is Understanding Medicare HMO's. These books were distributed through corporate benefit programs and the insurance industry.

Mike also developed the CT Coalition to End Homelessness and served as lobbyist and director of the Connecticut Interfaith Housing and Human Services Corp. He was named to two Governor's Task Forces on Homelessness. Later he became the Executive Director of the Open Hearth Association in Hartford, Connecticut's oldest men's homeless shelter and rehabilitation facility.

He currently serves as vice president of the national Association of United Church of Christ Intentional Interim Ministers (AUCCIIM) and is a member of the Committee on Interim Ministry for the Connecticut Conference. He is also the Registrar of the Tolland Association of the Connecticut Conference.

Mike lives in Coventry with his wife, Andrea, of 43 years. He grew up outside of Pittsburgh in Homestead Park, PA and attended Duquesne University, majoring in English Literature and Philosophy. He taught secondary English and Social Studies in Bennington, VT before attending Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, specializing in Christian Education. He loves to travel in Europe, make wine, plant and weed the flower garden and romp with his three English Setters, Daniel, Thomas and Jenny who were rescued from area shelters. He may be reached at (860) 377-8752 (cell) or (860) 742-5234. His email address is revmj@yaho.com.

From Rev. Joe & Laura

May 3, 2012

Dear Members, Friends and Associates of Broad Brook Congregational Church,

We are writing to express our deep appreciation and gratitude for the lovely and generous afternoon of bitter-sweet parting rituals. Only Broad Brook Congregational Church could manage that with such typical sincerity and a large dash of panache.

The reception part of the celebration was just about perfect, with so many in attendance, the room looked beautiful and tasty finger food was available for everyone. We realize that such a gathering does not happen by chance, and our thanks go out to the four fabulous ladies of the committee and everyone who helped make such a delightful gathering take place. You made it seem effortless.

The program in the sanctuary was beautiful. Thanks to all who spoke, we appreciated very much the effort, love and determination that go along with volunteering to do that. The music was magnificent, the choir sounded wonderful, and the choice of pieces was touching. It was a treat to see the turn-out of the past and present Sunday School members. Again, the whole program seemed to happen effortlessly, no doubt due in large part to the suave and subtle ministrations of the Master of Ceremonies

What can one say about the dinner? For a dinner at Broad Brook Congregational Church to be anything but a gastronomical tour-de-force would be akin to Joe giving up Guinness - a devastating shock to the system! It was, as always, delicious, and what a treat to be on the consumer side of the meal, and Baptism Congratulations!

The Board of Deacons is honored to announce the hiring of our part-time Pastor, the Reverend Michael J. Ader. Rev. Ader lives in Coventry with his wife, Andrea and their 3 dogs. He will begin his Transitional Ministry with us on July 1, 2012.

We would like to encourage all members and friends of Broad Brook Congregational Church to worship with us on July 1st, which is Rev. Ader's 1st Sunday. Special music is planned. We are planning a welcoming social time after the worship service. Everyone will have a chance to greet Rev. Ader and his wife at that time.

On Children's Day, June 10th, the Children took part in the worship service. Thank you to each of them, they did a very nice job. They all received certificates. A special Thanks to Mary Velazquez for being a dedicated teacher, Ethan Jones and Corin Jones for being co-superintendents and to Joyce Jordan, Chair of the Religious Education Committee. An ice cream social followed the worship service.

Our thanks to all persons who have volunteered to give Children Sermons through out the Church School year.

Our pulpit was filled during the month of May and June by the following persons: Warren Wenz, The Rev. Sara Solomons, Diann Bailey, Shawn Fisher, and Eileen Veniditti We thank them all for their spiritual guidance.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The Christian Education children finished Sunday School on June 10. The service for the morning was written for and directed by them. Alex Velazquez was in charge of candles and bells, Soareena Skinner gave the welcome and announcements, Abigayle, Chelsea, and Tracey Morin read the call to worship and led the congregation in the Prayer of Invocation and the Lord's Prayer. The first lay reading was done by Avery, Ethan, and Corin Jones and Linda York did the scripture reading. Alex and Nick Owens collected the offertory. The Prayer of Dedication was led by Katelyn, Tyler, Kristin, and John Curran. Tracey and the children did the Benediction.

Certificates of attendance were given to all who participated in Sunday School. Special flowers were given to Mary Velazquez for all her work in leading Sunday School every week.

Linda York, representing the Missions Committee, presented the 2012 Touch Another Life Scholarship given by Broad Brook Congregational Church to Wesley Jose Velazquez. Wes will be attending Eastern Connecticut State University this fall majoring in computer science.

At the conclusion of the program in the sanctuary, an ice cream social was held in the fellowship hall. Thanks to Linda, Nick, Mary, and Betty Stratton for providing some of the fixings for the sundaes as well as cookies and a cake.

Ecumenical Bazaar:

I know it is still summer but please keep in mind that the Ecumenical Bazaar will be held on Saturday, November 3rd. For those putting up items from their gardens this year in canning jars, making jelly, or have an abundance of crafting time in air conditioning.....please remember BBCC would love to have those extra items you can spare for our sale. Also...please see Debbie Siekiera if you would be interested in trying a pattern she has for the crocheted cat/small dog beds we have sold in the past. They are a good seller at the bazaar. Debbie's mother used to make them with all the left over yarn that was donated, but she is unable to crochet them now as arthritis has taken over her hands. "Thank you Mom" for the many wonderful beds made from love. She also supplied cat shelters with them as well. The best part is that they are machine washable and hold up for years.

“HEAD CHEF” MIKE SIEKIERA

Mike Siekiera was born and raised in Rhode Island. He grew up in Warwick with two sisters and a brother. His father was Polish and his mother Irish.

Mike entered the Air Force after he graduated from high school where he learned aircraft mechanics. He went to Spartan Aeronautics School in Tulsa, Oklahoma to get his A & P (Airframe & Powerplant) License to work on aircraft. He was hired by Delta Airlines 1981 in Atlanta, GA where he and his wife lived for seven years before transferring to Connecticut. He has worked for Delta for thirty-one years.

Mike developed interest in culinary arts in high school. His first cooking experience was as a teenage volunteer at boy scout camp as assistant chef. His second experience was when he worked in a hospital kitchen where his mother was head nurse in pediatrics. At BBCC, he started cooking as an assistant to a former member and friend, Brian Chisholm, then with another former member, Nancy Fisher. Now Mike is “Head Chef” at BBCC. He and his wife Debbie are a team when it comes to planning the church suppers, but Mike does all the cooking.

Mike fixes everything in his house and does a lot of the repairs at the church. His many hobbies include: woodworking, chair-caning, gardening, fishing (he’s a member of BB Angling Club), Soduko puzzles and reading (he devours books, loves his kindle!). One of his favorite singers is Willie Nelson and he likes classic rock and bluegrass music.

He and his wife, Debbie, have been married since 1982. They are both very active church members. They are both motorcyclists. They have two daughters, one son, two grandsons and a 167 lb Newfoundland named Floyd whom they take for swims in the Connecticut River.

So, the next time you enjoy one of those super BBCC Suppers, you know who did it!

The Missions Committee is proud to present the 2012 Touch Another Life Scholarship given by the Broad Brook Congregational Church to Wesley Jose Velazquez.

Wesley, a member of our church, is graduating from E. Windsor High School in June. He will be attending Eastern Connecticut State University in the fall, majoring in Computer Science. He served as representative to the EWSHS Class of 2012 Executive Board, has been a Sunday School teacher and worked several church suppers. He worked part time for the E.W. Family Resource Center and for the Town of East Windsor. He is described as a “model student” who has “quality and high standards.” He extends himself to volunteer his time, computer expertise and energy to help students, teachers and staff. He exhibits curiosity, responsibility, respect, kindness, intelligence and character on a daily basis. We wish him success and send him off with God’s blessings.

RECIPES FROM BBCC

Nancy's BBQ Sauce

(will be used for BBCC's Barbeque Chicken Supper)

1 cup ketchup
1 cup sugar
1 cup water
1/4 cup vinegar
1/4 cup chopped onion
dash cinnamon

Place all ingredients in a medium saucepan. Bring to a gentle boil. Reduce heat to simmer sauce for several hours until it thickens and is reduced to half the volume in the pan. Store in container in refrigerator.

Note: That is the original version of the recipe. I have been making that recipe for more than 30 years at the onset of grilling season, it was given to me by a friend in which our families have been going to camp with for the same amount of time. I now make the sauce for her since she has been developed severe health issues which prevents her cooking. It has become a yearly tradition. I have made some substitutions through the years like crushed tomatoes or tomato puree for the ketchup with similar end results. I have also switched out brown sugar for the white sugar or done half and half, cider vinegar for the white vinegar, added freshly minced garlic with the onions and so on. It's a fantastic finger licking sauce with so many variations of choice. Try it - make it your own!

Tag Sale

Please remember that our annual tag sale has been cancelled for this year. The Ways & Means Committee hopes to add it back for next summer but in light of all the church has been through this year, a work force break was in order! There are a lot of charitable organizations that would love to have your unneeded items if you have some ready to go. I whole-heartedly support the Vietnam Veterans of America myself. They are easy to schedule a pick-up, either call 1-800-775-VETS (8387) or go online to www.scheduleapickup.com. There are other equally deserving organizations that could use your donations as well.

FROM THE FLOWER COMMITTEE

There are just a few Sundays available for flower. You can take the flowers with you after church, or they will be donated to a shut-in or someone celebrating an event that week. If the date you would like is taken, we will do a double dedication! To arrange to have flowers any Sunday, contact Corin Jones at 860.654.1877. The lovely flower arrangements cost only $17.50. Your check should be made payable to Broad Brook Congregational Church.

Plant Sale

Thank you to all who supported the plant sale again this year, this fundraiser raised $600.00. That is amazing! It is a lot of work for our gardeners but I think beneficial to their gardens and ours even more! After the sale there were some Hostas left over from the sale. Joyce Bonelli planted them along side the church, where they look fantastic - Joyce! Thank you!!! The other unsold plants were donated to another plant sale. Heartfelt thank you's are sincerely extended to Joyce Bonelli and her sister Julia Cote for their dedication to this project and hard work.

Speaking of gardens, take a peak at our newly named BBCC Memorial Garden. In April at a very special "Farewell Event" held in their honor, BBCC presented a plaque to the Rev. Dr. Joseph M. Cahallan and his wife Laura Callahan naming the garden after them. Rev. Joe planted the seed to have the garden back there behind our church so it seemed so fitting to name the garden after him and his wife who had spent many hours as one of our master gardeners there. Credit for that garden also goes out to Mike and Penny Savoie for laying the ground work and design. Since you've moved to NY, the Memorial Garden Committee has stepped up and dedicated many hours weeding, planting new flowers, adding newly engraved bricks, plaques and watering the new vegetation, taking over where you left off and the garden looks fantastic. It is so serene to sit

BBQ Chicken Supper

New to our list of fundraisers this year is a BBQ chicken supper. The church had them many years ago. We thought it would be nice to shake things up by pairing favorite summer foods such as potato salad, corn on the cob and fresh vegetables from the garden with the chicken. Even the BBQ sauce will be homemade in our church's kitchen. The recipe can be found in our BBCC cookbook. For those of you who do not have a copy of the cookbook, the recipe can be found in our recipe corner of this issue of the Beacon. For dessert we will have ice cream with a homemade blueberry sauce, lazy man's strawberry shortcake and some other favorite's. After all, we strive on tempting your tummies with too much good food!!! Sign up sheets will be available in the fellowship hall through August as we will need help to put the dinner on. So save the date folks! This dinner will be held on Saturday, August 25th. Hope to see you all there!
